- When to do a PI only application
- How to prepare and submit a PI only application
 - Application
 - Budget
- Questions
- Next Steps

What is a PI Only Application?

- PI Cash-on-hand and future receipts
 - PI that is not part of an open award
 - PI that is not part of a RLF
 - PI that is not part of a supplemental
- PI balance must have been submitted to HCD with evidence to validate Cash-on-hand and current year receipts

When to do a PI Only Application

- Readiness is still a factor in PI applications
 - PI program applications are not competitive
 - We still want to see that you have your program ready to go
- Threshold is required
 - We do not have waivers on any of the current threshold requirements (at this time)
- You haven't applied for an 2019-2020 open grant
 - If you have already applied for an open grant, you should have included your PI in that application
 - Unless you identified that you will be doing an RLF

How to Prepare a PI Only Application

- Grants Network Application
 - Use current applications
 - Project title should say “PI Only Jurisdiction Project/Program”
 - You must complete the whole application
- Grants Network Budget
 - PI only budget in online budget should include at a minimum:
 - Cash-on-hand Activity
 - Cash-on-hand General Admin
 - Future Receipts

Questions

- System Issues
- HUD Waivers
- State of California Waivers
- COVID-19 Response Funding
