Community Needs Assessment Survey
Let your voice be heard! The California Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD) is updating its Analysis of Impediments to Fair Housing Choice (AIFHC), which is our fair housing plan for the next five years, and we want to hear from you. Completing this survey will help HCD understand what California residents are currently experiencing and refine our goals to make affordable, safe, and stable housing more accessible. We appreciate your valuable input. Begin Survey x

Current Trends and Existing Conditions

Native Americans in California

- Dispossession and loss of land
- 110 federally-recognized tribes with many others seeking recognition
- More than 1.4 million American Indian and Alaska Native peoples living in California
- The majority Native peoples live off tribal land in city and county jurisdictions
- At least 5x more likely to experience homelessness

Barriers to Housing for Tribal Communities

- When and where fair housing laws apply
- For tribes, access to funds and capital, administrative capacity, economic development challenges, and the complexity of building on tribal land
- Insufficient support for Native peoples living off tribal land
- Limitations in targeting services to Native populations off tribal land
- Intersection of higher rates of poverty and homelessness for Native peoples

Feedback and Listening

Discussion Questions

1. Have you ever wanted to live somewhere but couldn't? What prevented you from living there?
 2. Have you ever lost your housing? What would have helped you keep it?
 3. What challenges have you faced trying to get housing off tribal lands?
 4. What should the state of California do to help American Indian and Alaska Native people find housing when they are living off tribal lands?
