FOR IMMEDIATE POSTING

PUBLIC NOTICE FOR COMMENT

Draft National Disaster Resilience Competition
Draft Phase 2 Application

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the State of California Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD) and the Governor's Office of Planning and Research (OPR) in partnership with the County of Tuolumne will hold a PUBLIC REVIEW and COMMENT PERIOD and a PUBLIC HEARING for the purpose of soliciting citizens' review and comment on the draft Phase 2 Application for the *National Disaster Resilience Competition (NDRC) to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). HUD will allocate up to $1 billion toward this competition nationwide. It has invited communities that have experienced Presidentially-declared natural disasters to compete for these funds to help them rebuild and increase their resilience in the face of future disasters.

In addition to HCD, OPR, and the County of Tuolumne, other key partners include the U.S. Forest Service (USFS), the California Environmental Protection Agency (CalEPA), the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection (CalFIRE), the Sierra Nevada Conservancy and the California Conservation Corps.

The State of California has selected Tuolumne County's Rim Fire to enter into the national competition. Eligible activities for this competition must be located within the Rim Fire perimeter and the evacuated areas of Tuolumne County. Possible activities could include but are not limited to: infrastructure improvements, forest management improvements, and economic revitalization.

Citizens will be asked to give their input on resilient approaches and possible project ideas that could be replicated in other Sierra Nevada regions and western states. All projects funded by the grant must meet at least one Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) National objective.

NOTICE IS HEREBY FURTHER GIVEN - Public review of the Draft NDRC Phase 2 application will be available on Friday, October 9th (1) on HCD's NDRC web site at <http://www.hcd.ca.gov/nationaldisaster/public-notice.html> under the Public Notices section, (2) at the Tuolumne County Administrative Office during normal business hours from October 9, 2015, through October 23, 2015, (3) at the Sonora Library, the Groveland Library, the Tuolumne Library, the Twain Hart Library, and (4) at the following depository libraries:
